Searching . . . challenging . . .
developing creative expression . . .
An insistent beat demanding motion, action, life . . .
A potpourri of faces—
Us, the proud crowd . . .
proud of our manifold involvements . . .
intensifying today . . .
soul in our music, mod in our clothes,
daily communication in so many ways . . .
Beginning to look beyond
the walls of Lane . . .
for the beat goes on . . .

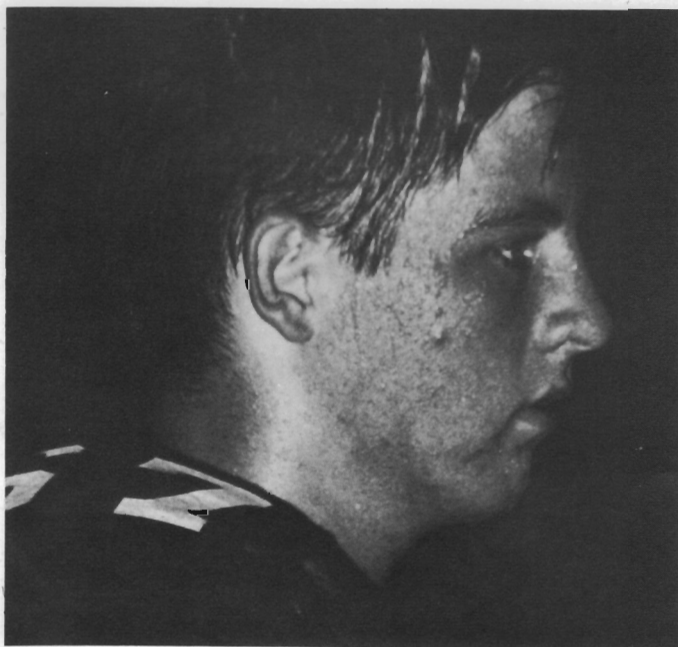

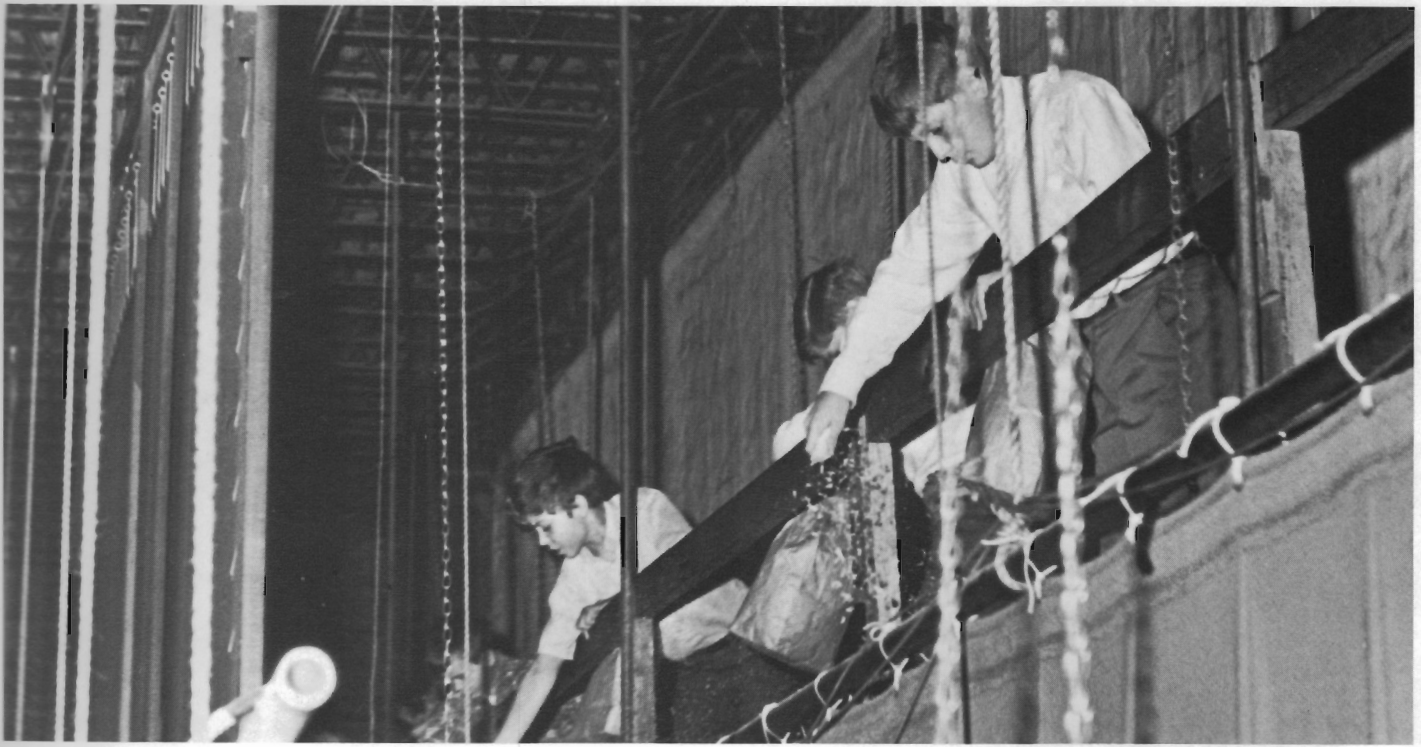

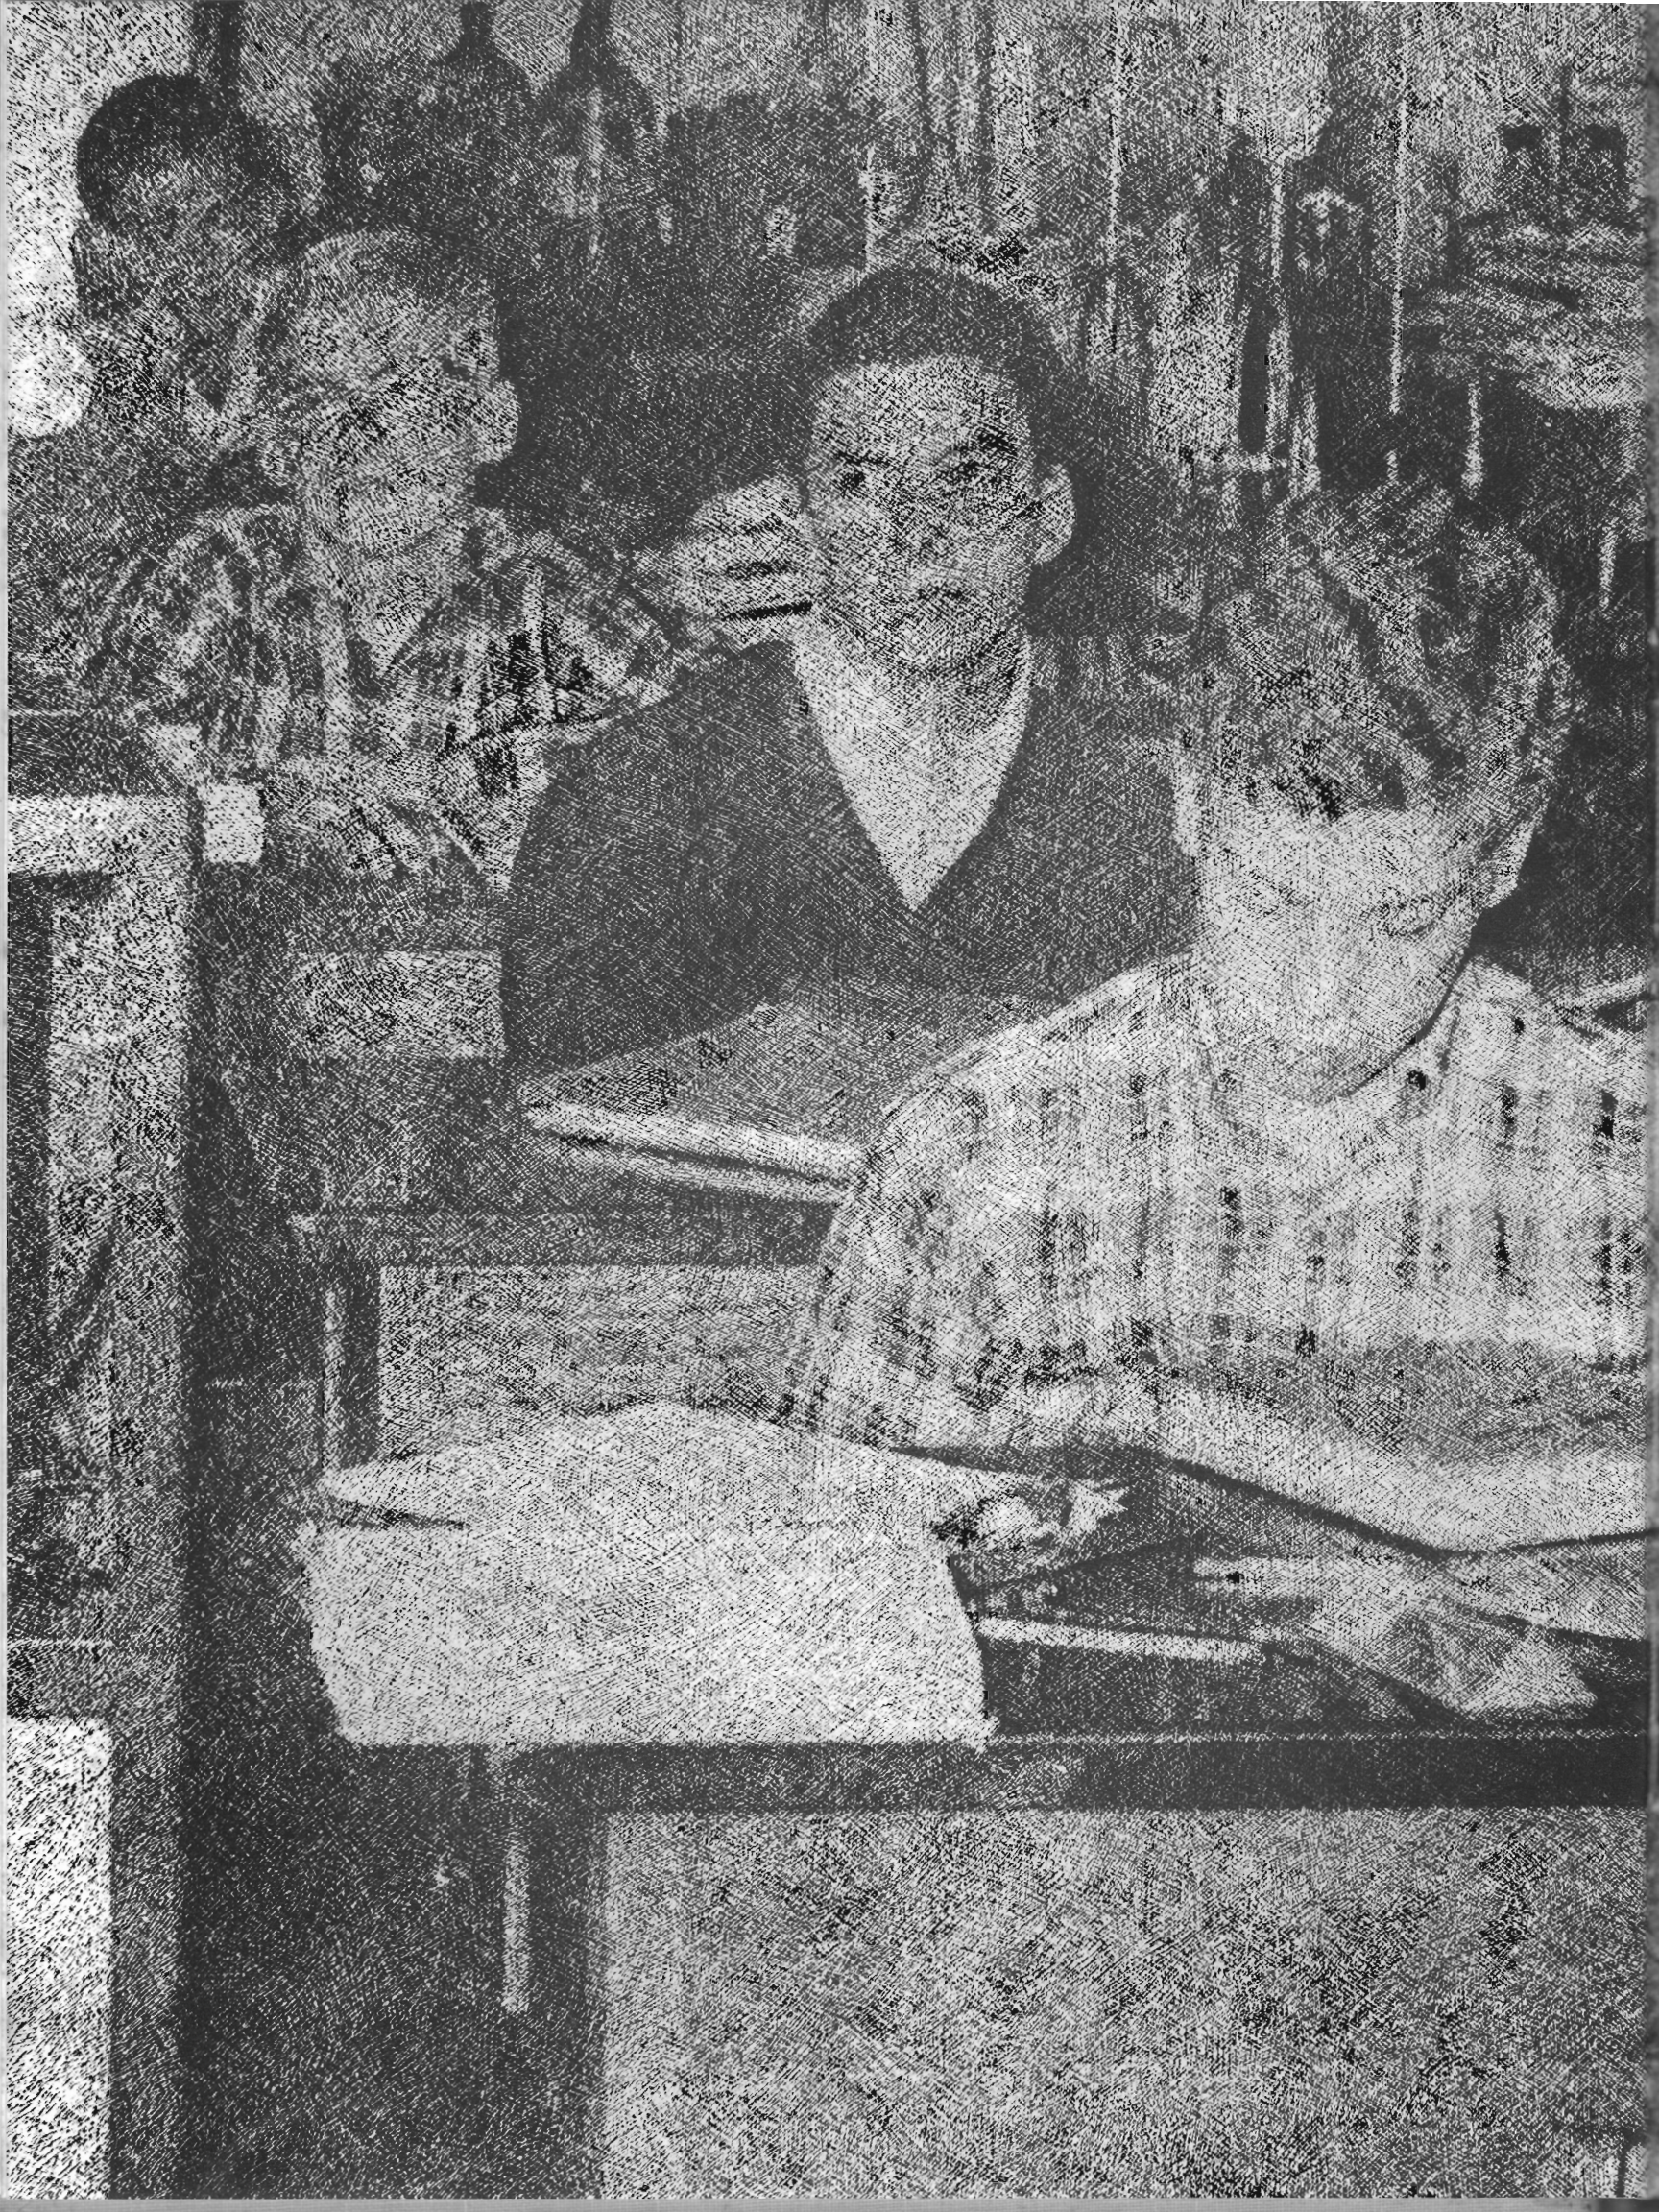

The classroom—
 a unique, intense community . . .
 freedom of discussion . . .
 toleration of difference . . .
 The confused perplexity
 of a difficult subject . . .
 suddenly overcome
 with a light of understanding . . .
 the test—a gamut of expressions
 ranging from anguish to triumph . . .
 Intense concentration directed towards one moment of discovery . . .
 A progressive realization of how much has been learned . . .

The ring of a bell—
a rush to freedom . . .
mass exodus to the parking lot . . .
a sea of faces
with places to go
and people to meet . . .
A frantic dash for the bus
or an idle wait for a ride . . .
A club meeting—opportunity to exhibit individuality . . .
to exchange ideas . . .
Anticipation of a big date
or a spirited bus trip . . .
Unhindered souls celebrating the excitement of being involved . . .

Assistant principal and athletic director

Leaders in the world of intellect find no chalk lines to limit their duties . . . It is difficult to assess obligations to those who feel their demands are justified . . . It is hard in these times . . . hard to know . . . to either assume or deny responsibilities . . . So much to be done for so many and so little time to do any but the essentials . . . Tightly woven threads of reason must be spun by innumerable people and by countless events . . . to provide the best . . . in educational programs . . . both academic and vocational. To know the truth of our youth is to conceive of a dynamic personality both here and abroad . . . Administrators must provide development centers that will offer a tangible hold in this period of transition . . . from the child to the adult.

Mrs. Hutcheson, Mrs. Heath, and Miss Deane.

New audio-visual aids enhance study

Subdued . . . but with an intensity . . .
the beat goes on . . .
in the stacks
at the tables
with a background hum of projectors
and the snap of slide viewers . . .
Pages whisper . . .
pens slither over
last minute notes . . .
Librarians boost book lists

Mathematics

Calculating minds cultivate reason

Math . . . like all scientific work is neutral in itself . . .
 It all depends on what is done with it . . . human limitations are a constant . . .
 a given factor . . .
 Mathematical progress is a variable addition . . .
 Though human minds conceive of different beliefs . . . philosophies they all submit to the same mathematical truths.

Science

Indoctrination in lab techniques . . . technical data

Mr. Reitz

In modern perspective . . .
 Man's height diminishes in proportion to the increase of scientific power . . .
 Even so . . .
 it is more difficult to preserve ignorance than
 to acquire knowledge . . .
 But in the arrogance of intellect
 we may fail
 as we learn to manipulate
 the forces of nature . . .
 Forgetting about
 the nature of forces.

Foreign languages

The image displays a highly textured, monochromatic surface, likely the cover or endpaper of an old book. The texture is dense and irregular, with a mottled pattern of light and dark gray tones. There are subtle variations in the shading, suggesting a rough or aged material. The overall appearance is grainy and aged, with no discernible text or other features.

The Streak kept incredible spirit . . .
drawing unbelievable crowds . . .

The Streak kept the players going.
Incentive . . . pressure . . .
pride in our school . . . and football was the Streak—

we lost.
Then suddenly football was heads held high . . .

higher perhaps than all other times . . .
Football '67 was more

A friend . . .
 someone who cares
 and understands you . . .
 someone to go places with . . .
 to do things with . . .
 Studying . . . playing . . .
 working together
 on projects and committees . . .
 shopping . . . cruising . . .
 acting stupid together . . .
 Talking together
 on the phone for hours and hours . . .
 discussing the latest happenings
 and special problems . . .
 exchanging thoughts . . . ideas . . .
 personal opinions . . .
 Sharing a joke for two . . .
 exchanging a knowing glance . . .
 laughing and arguing together . . .
 slumber parties . . . bullsessions . . .
 A friend can be your best critic . . . your worst . . .
 it's nice to hear
 an honest opinion . . .
 Then there's that big date—
 a very special friend . . .
 not always going out . . .
 sometimes just talking . . .
 it's good to hear
 a girl's point of view . . . a boy's . . .
 Friendship is a maturing experience . . .
 not just being conscious
 of another's feelings,
 but really caring . . .
 the inexpressible glow
 of sharing . . .
 of understanding . . .
 of being genuinely concerned . . .
 It's good to have someone besides yourself . . .

A collage of books, people and ideas forming an atmosphere in which to learn from one another and grow within ourselves because of each other . . . Five long years in which every day is an experience—good, bad or indifferent—a minor happening to eventually blend into the most crucially constructive period of our lives . . . While we are still so much a part of this scene, we shout with the proud exuberance of our years: “We’re from Lane,” and “We’re what’s happening, baby!”

A black and white photograph of a person, likely a woman, wearing a dark, textured garment that appears to be a coat or jacket. The person is positioned on the left side of the frame, with their head and shoulders visible. The background is a light, textured surface. The overall image has a grainy, halftone quality, suggesting it might be a reproduction from a printed source.

"Ruby Tuesday"—the Rolling Stones.

Inexperienced team strives for perfection

"Go, Big Lane!" . . . a battlecry to set the beat for squad members . . . seasoned players and rookies . . . none of whom had yet experienced defeat. Summer practice took place in the comparative cool of the evening . . . but it saw the usual number of injuries . . . and of dropouts. Finally . . . a hardened nucleus of power was formed . . . the strength of defense . . . and hopefully . . . the invulnerability of offense. Greatest goal of all . . . a happening in a sense of teamwork . . . readiness for whatever the season might bring.

Bursting through the hoop in the first game of the season with J. R. Tucker . . .

Butch Dudley, Steve Jones, Ronnie Critzer follow Gary Trader and Francis Burns . . .

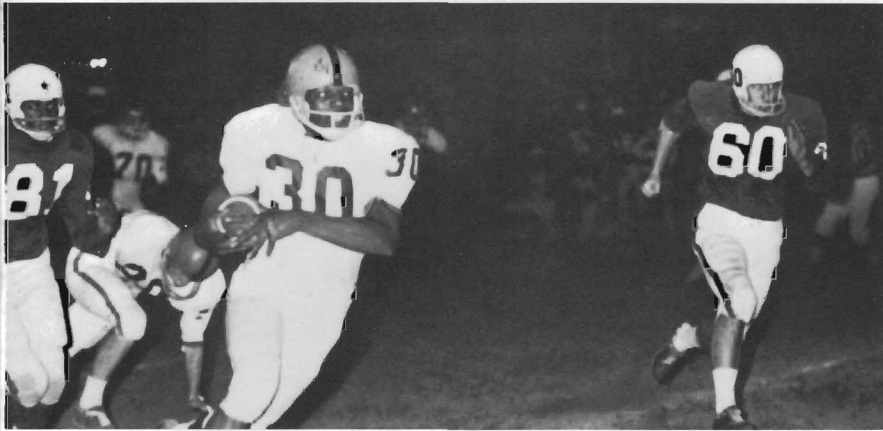

Stunned by the rigors of the Springer game, Don Gibson is carried to the locker room.

Mike Cabbage sweats it out during a crucial defensive play in the John Marshall game.

Knights' streak soars to 53

James Harmon carries the ball during the John Marshall game, Lane's 52nd win.

Inexperience mingles with a proud winning tradition and the desire to win. Tension . . . doubt . . . pressure mounts with the opening Tucker game . . . Joyous cries of triumph as The Streak is raised to 50!

Springers add another win . . . pride and pressure swell . . .

Knights edge Marshall for 52 . . .

Fleming bombed for 53 . . .

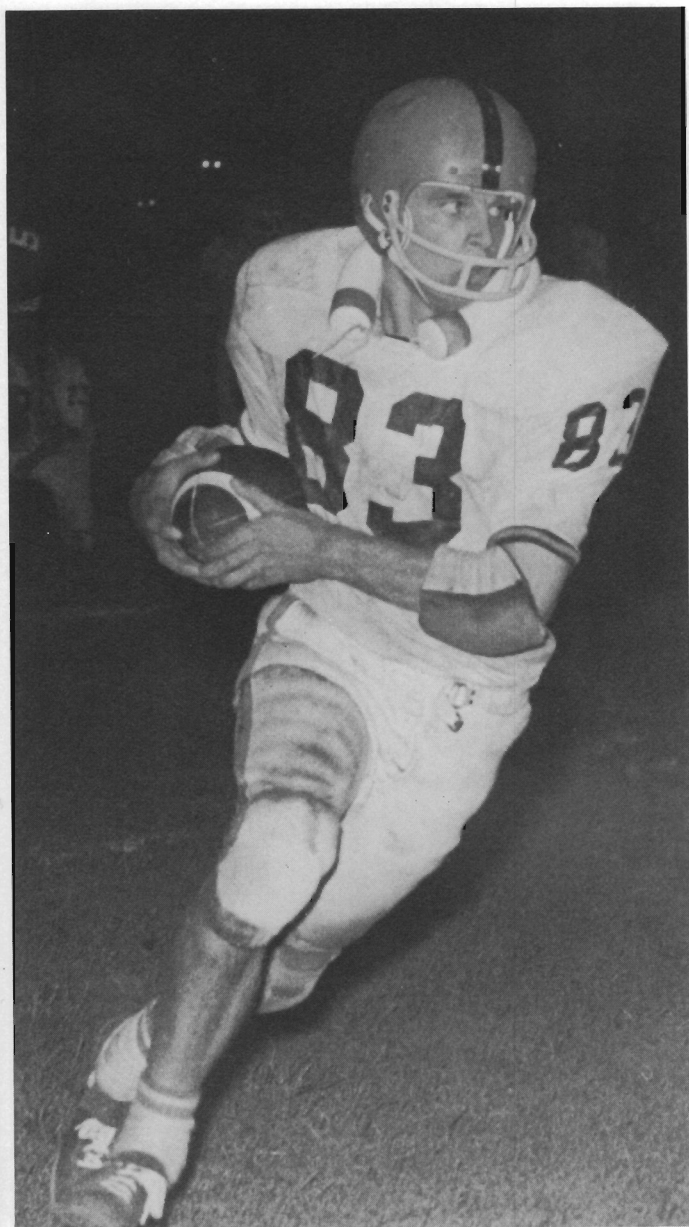

"We're No. 1" . . . the cry of supremacy . . .

The ignorance of defeat . . .

What is it like to lose?

Nick Neofotis unties a tight knot of Highland Springs tackles with a swift charge down the field.

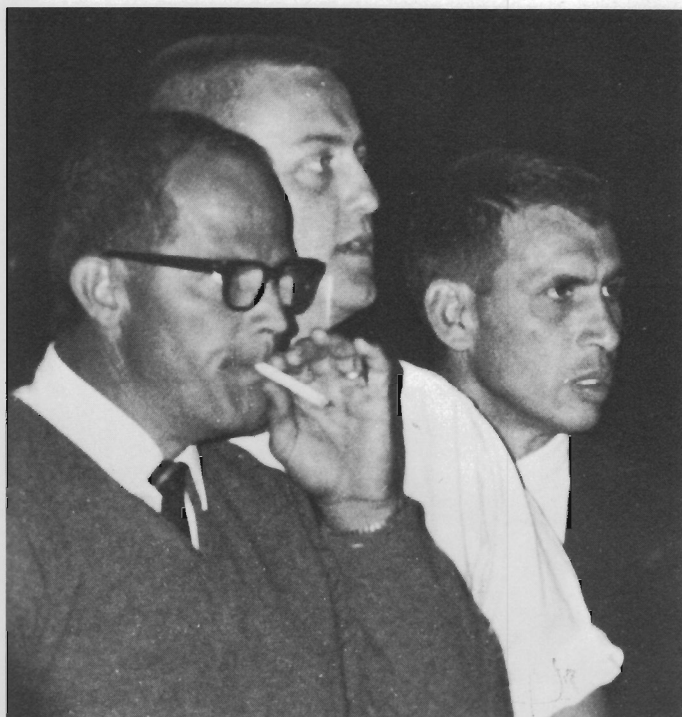

J. R. Tucker gives up a touchdown as Steve Felger races toward goal line.

The kick-off to William Fleming, Lane's 53rd victim, is executed by Robert Carey.

The big three—Coaches Bingler, Abel and Theodore—tensely survey the action during the John Marshall game.

Dignity soothes sting of defeat

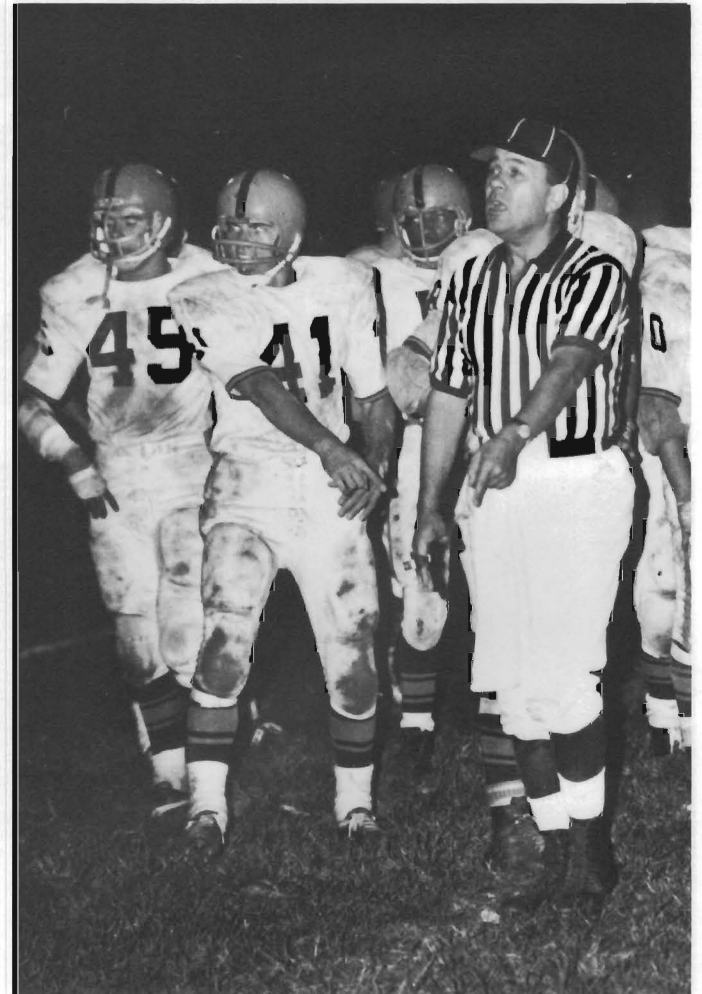

Final score . . . first upset in fifty-three . . .
Freeman 27 . . . Lane 14.

Fullback James Harmon gains precious yardage
in Freeman game.

Crescendo of tension . . . pressure . . .
pride . . . "We're No. 1!" echoes through the damp, chilly night.
Tattered Rebel flags flap furiously
in the swarming stands . . .
The drive for 54 . . .
Fear and tension mount as Rebel giants hit hard . . . the fierce battle is on . . .
Knights fight to protect their proud tradition.
Hope glimmers . . . then fades . . . fades . . .
and it is over.
Our Streak lies torn . . . splintered on the soggy turf . . . The magic is gone but not our pride . . . heads are held high . . . few tears are shed . . .
We have learned to lose.

Referee and Lane players Mike Van Yahres and Barrett Payne question Tee Jay's first down.

Fresh outlook breeds new enthusiasm

Defeat has brought an almost welcome relief . . . at least a new outlook and a fresh beginning.

Spirits soar to stomps the Jeffs . . . smear Varina . . .

crush George Wythe.

Lanced down by the loss of men . . . the spectres of weariness and fatigue haunt the Knights . . . their helmeted heads bow to Henrico . . .

still again . . . to Hermitage.

It is the finale . . .

A grueling
but memorable season.

Quarterback Mike Cabbage makes a cut up field against George Wythe.

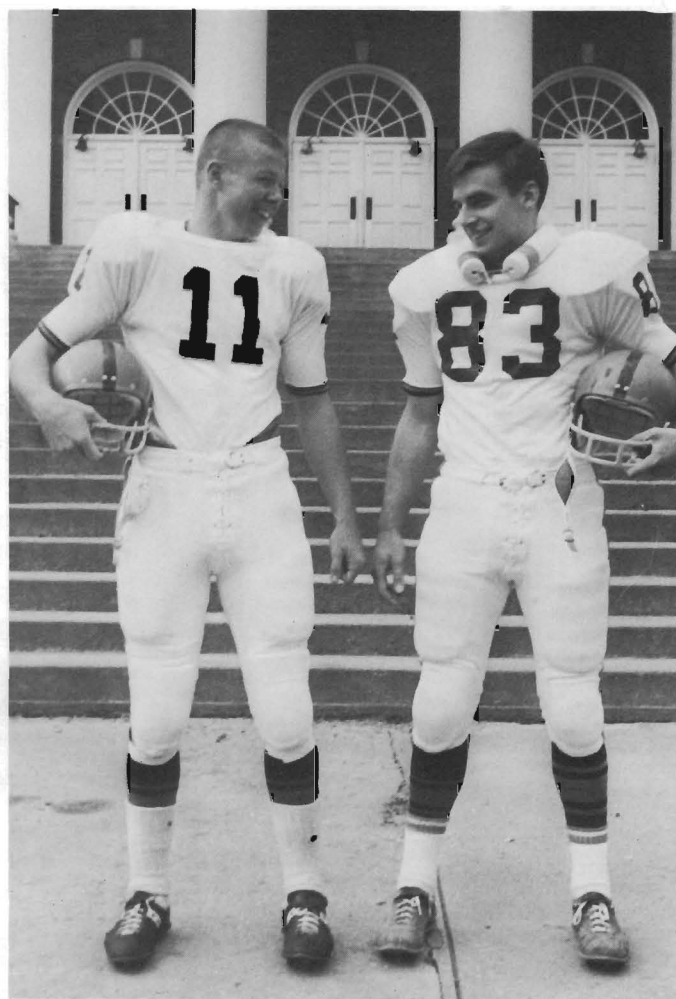

Mike Van Yahres and Bobby King combine forces to bring down a Hermitage player short of the goal line.

Jayvees compile a 4-2 record

Heartbreaking . . . that feeling of being outweighed . . . outmanned and even of being outrun but . . . the JayVees faced each opponent with renewed struggle . . . with determination . . . with spirit and . . . most important . . . with the knowledge that they had . . . as young athletes . . . developed a potential. They had developed a dexterity in their kicking . . . passing . . . punting . . . and set their cleats on the line for that Varsity position.

A black and white photograph of a person in a dark, textured environment, possibly a cave or a large, dark room. The person is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, garment and is looking down. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on the person's face and clothing, and deep shadows in the surrounding space. The texture of the walls and floor appears rough and uneven.

An elite feeling . . .
That of being almost there officially.
The establishment of self
of earning privileges . . .
Gaining trust and hopefully . . . Foresight for the final drama of becoming leaders at Lane. Transitions, transpositions of personality have been made . . .
Change is no longer such a challenge
but part of the chain of events
to forge our lives with the future.

This is a high-contrast, black and white image, likely a scan of a book cover or endpaper. The image is characterized by a dense, grainy texture. On the left side, there is a dark, rectangular shape that appears to be a binding or a piece of tape. The rest of the image is a light gray, textured surface. The overall appearance is that of a heavily worn or aged piece of paper or fabric.

Retrospect

A kaleidoscope of happenings—the beat goes on . . .

The frenzied world of 1968 . . . a restless and turbulent year . . .
the continual war in Vietnam
exhausting the nation's patience, purse, and manpower . . .
the capture of the Pueblo by North Korea . . .
the Peace March on Washington . . . a garbage strike in New York . . .
the assassination of Martin Luther King
the growth of Black Power and increasing racial tension
the Credibility Gap and decline of Johnson's popularity . . .
the approaching election . . . a lameduck president and a swelling list of Presidential hopefuls . . .
a period of constant change . . .
the resignations of Defense Secretary McNamara
. . . devaluation of the English pound . . . passage of local option
. . . Lane's teacher turnover and disrupting bomb threats an end to a football winning tradition . . .
a year without Follies or snow days . . . the long-awaited advent of new water fountains and a National Honor Society . . .
the 13th Floor Coffeehouse . . . an effective Youth Council . . .
the rebellion of youth against the Establishment . . .
Psychedelia . . . the blossom and decline of hippie culture . . .
an era of flowers, grass, and LSD . . . long hair and beads . . .
Maharishi Yogi . . . Ravi Shankar . . . flower power and soul control . . . Sgt. Pepper . . . Peter, Paul, and Mary . . . "Funky Broadway" . . .
"Love is Blue" . . . the year of the giant Sweet Tart . . . Twiggy . . .
Jean-Claude Killy and Peggy Fleming . . . "Bonnie and Clyde" . . .
"Cool Hand Luke" and the failure to communicate . . .
a year of protest and involvement . . . turmoil and excitement . . .
a whirling kaleidoscope of people, places, and events.
It's what happened, baby!
